A Pleasant Family Reunion. Dear Journal :- It is not often I respass on your time or space, but 1 will ask a little indulgence to-day in order to give you a slight description of a pleasant little affair at which assisted yesterday.

It was a dinner given on the occasion of the birthday celebration of one of our most highly esteemed neighbors, Mrs. Nellie Hand. Mrs. Hand is a descendant of revolutionary notoriety, her father, Mr. James Smith, having served in that war with ly. At an early age she married Mr. Wm. J.
